INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIESIDS 320-41 Work in Contemporary America (3)

Throughout the history of the United States, work and its connection to the labor market has served as one of the central organizing principles of American life. Significantly, work has been a critical site in which gender and class roles and identity in general have been negotiated. In an effort to understand the complicated dynamics of contemporary work in the United States, this course will examine a number of key issues including the rise of the service economy, globalization, immigration, gender, and about the meanings of work in general. Importantly, the critical examination of these issues will allow us to think more comprehensively and critically about the United States.

$4.00 daily fee is required during the months of May & June.

PRIVACY INFORMATION ▼

The University complies with Federal and State laws concerning privacy rights of students. These rights are summarized in the University Catalog. Questions about privacy rights may be directed to the Dean of Extended Education at (310) 243-3737 or the Vice President for Student Affairs at (310) 243-3784.

Use of Social Security Number

Students are required to provide the University with their correct social security numbers (individual taxpayer identification numbers) pursuant to the authority contained in Section 41201, Title 5, California Code of Regulations, and Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code. The University uses the social security number to identify records pertaining to the student and, if needed, to collect debts owed the University. Also, the Internal Revenue Service requires the University to file information returns that include the student's social security number and other information such as the amount paid for qualified tuition, related expenses, and interest on educational loans. That information is used to help determine whether a student, or a person claiming a student as a dependent, may take a credit or deduction to reduce federal income taxes. Students who do not have a social security number at the time of enrollment will be required to obtain a social security number and submit it to the University within sixty days. Failure to furnish a correct social security number may result in the imposition of a penalty by the Internal Revenue Service.

Important Tax Credit Information

If you are enrolled in an eligible degree or certificate program or are taking courses to acquire or improve job skills, you may qualify for a Hope Scholarship or Lifetime Learning Tax Credit.

The Hope Scholarship tax credit is available only to students in their first two years of postsecondary education who are enrolled at least half-time in an eligible program. The tax credits are based on the amount of qualified tuition and fees, less grants and other tax-free educational assistance and the taxpayer's modified adjusted gross income. Hope credits apply to fees paid after December 31, 1997.

The Lifetime Learning Tax Credit is available to students at all educational and enrollment levels who are enrolled at an eligible educational institution. As with the Hope Scholarship tax credit, this opportunity is based on the amount of qualified tuition and fees, less grants and other tax-free educational assistance and the taxpayer's modified adjusted gross income. The Lifetime Learning credit applies to fees paid after June 30, 1998. Consult IRS Publication 970 or your tax preparer for additional information on both programs.

Disabled Student Services

Students with verified disabilities, which are permanent or temporary (e.g., broken bones, strained back, other sprains, etc.) are eligible for a variety of support services from the Disabled Student Services Office. Information regarding special facilities and services available to students with a disability may be obtained from the Director of Disabled Student Services Office, located in the Student Health Center, Room A-106, (310) 243-3660 (voice) or 243-2028 (TDD).

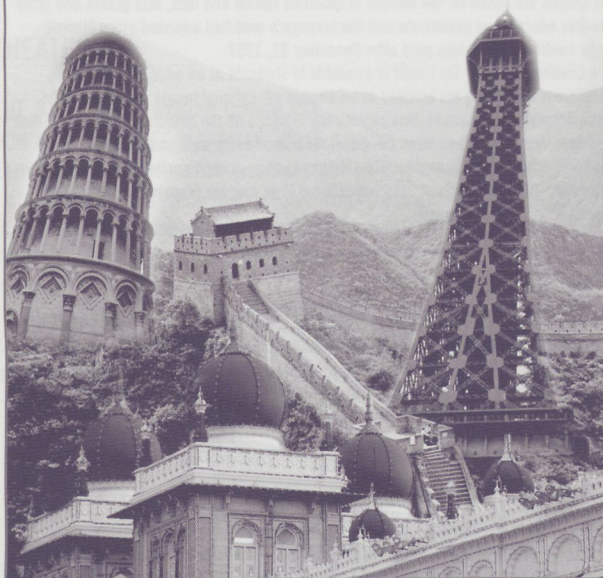

Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973

California State University, Dominguez Hills is an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution. As a unit of the university, the Division of Extended Education does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, gender, sexual preference, age, disability or veteran status. This policy is applicable to employment and student admission, and to all educational programs and activities.

SPRING INTERSESSION

SPRING INTERSESSION 2010 FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is Spring Intercession?

Spring Intercession is defined as special session that begins after spring commencement, but prior to the end of the official academic calendar. In 2010, courses will begin on May 24. Courses must end no later than June 30. Courses are accelerated and may vary in length from three to six weeks.

Who can attend Spring Intercession?

Spring Intercession is open to all CSUDH students, prospective students, students from other colleges and universities, and interested individuals from the community. There is no separate application or admission process required. Please note that if you are not already a CSUDH student, registration in a Spring Intercession course does not constitute admission to the University.

Can I attend Spring Intercession if I am a high school student?

High school students are welcome to attend as long as an official Letter of Recommendation from the high school principal or counselor accompanies the registration.

Will Spring Intercession courses count toward my degree?

Spring Intercession courses are regular University courses and carry residence credit; i.e., Spring Intercession courses may be used for your degree.

How many courses may I take in the Spring Intercession?

We recommend that students take no more than the equivalent of one unit per week with a maximum of six units for the entire Spring Intercession.

How do I register for the Spring Intercession?

All registration options are available for CSUDH students: my.csudh.edu, mail, telephone, and in person. If you have never attended CSUDH before, you may register by mail, telephone, or in person.

How much does Spring Intercession cost?

The Spring Intercession is separate from the regular Spring semester and /or Summer terms and students must pay additional fees. Spring Intercession fees are $199 per unit unless otherwise indicated.

Is Financial Aid available?

Financial aid may be available for students depending upon their remaining eligibility. Students should contact the Financial Aid Office: WH B260, ext 3691.

Can I drop my classes and receive a refund?

Prior to the first day of the Spring Intercession students may drop a course with a 100% refund less $10 processing fee. Please refer to the approved College refund policy for information concerning drops which occur after classes have started.

May I count Spring Intercession courses toward spring graduation?

No, units earned in the Spring Intercession may not be used toward the spring graduation date.
