2024-2025 Exceeds Loan Aggregate Limit

The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) reported that you may have received federal student loans in excess of federal aggregate loan limits. The U.S. Department of Education notified you of this issue in the Comments section of your Student Aid Report, which you can view when you login at <https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa>

You are not eligible to receive any federal student aid until the loan issue has been resolved. The processing of your financial aid application at CSUDH has been placed on hold until we receive the necessary documentation from you.

Resolution of Exceeding Loan Aggregate Limit

Please indicate below how you have resolved the overpayment and attach required document(s):

I previously received additional Direct Unsubsidized Loans due to a Parent PLUS Loan denial.

- No documentation required; our office will review your loan history.

I have repaid the excess loan amount borrowed.

- Attach a copy of the letter from the U.S. Department of Education showing you have repaid the excess amount borrowed and are now eligible for Title IV student aid.

I have consolidated my Direct Loans.

- No documentation required; our office will review your loan history.

I have made satisfactory arrangements with the loan servicer to repay the excess amount borrowed.

- Attach a copy of the Reaffirmation Confirmation letter from your loan servicer, showing you have made satisfactory payment arrangements for the excess amount borrowed.

Student Acknowledgement:

I certify that all reported information is complete and correct. If you purposely provide false or misleading information, you may be fined, sentenced to jail, or both.
