

Discovering Primary Sources

at CSUDH, CA & Around the Globe

Workshop

Archivists collect, preserve and make accessible historical and cultural sources and artifacts for learning, discovery and research! Led by a CSUDH faculty archivist, this in-person workshop will feature treasures from the CSUDH archives and introduce you to primary source research tools in the humanities, both locally and around the globe. Using our CSUDH Gerth Archives digital and physical collections, the Online Archive of California (OAC) and the digital collections of The British Library and the Archive of the Indies, we will discuss how to locate and utilize primary sources like historical documents, photographs, art, maps oral histories, speeches, videos, letters/ correspondence, artifacts and editorials.
