By completing the application I, _____, representative of the organization, _____, am applying to be part of the Labor and Social Justice Celebration on 4/28/10, and booths should be working from 11:00 AM to about 5:00 PM. There is no charge. Afterwards, there is an evening event that is also free, and all are invited to attend. I understand that the Labor Studies Department, the Labor Studies Club and/or CSUDH will not be held liable for injuries associated with the event. The Booth consists of a table and two chairs, and a canopy, which you can decorate with a banner and any other decorations, and bring information and/or materials regarding your organization. I further understand the booth will not provide electricity and/or heating & cooling and should dress appropriately. I am aware that the Labor Studies Club will provide a canopy, a table and two chairs for the use during the event. I can decorate the booth and distribute materials at the discretion of my organization. I am further aware that the Labor and Celebration is not responsible for sponsoring parking accommodations.

After the Application Deadline, the Labor Studies club will send a confirmation for the booth and location, as well as parking instructions, and a program of the day's events.

The Labor Studies Dept. and the Labor Studies Club would like to thank you in advance for your participation. Set-up begins at 8:00 A.M.
