DoD Tuition Assistance Rates Per Unit
2024/2025 Academic School Year

The Department of Defense (DoD) requires that all colleges and universities using a flat rate for tuition, including California State University, Dominguez Hills (CSUDH), post the per credit hour tuition rate on their website for military students receiving military tuition assistance.

Below is the cost on a per-credit rate basis for each CSUDH undergraduate and graduate program. Please note that the figures below are provided solely to meet this DoD requirement. CSUDH does not use a per credit hour calculation to determine tuition charges. This information will not be included with the official school Cost of Attendance.
